SECTION A

Item 1:

Chekomai has an acre of land next to a lake. He has saved UGX4, 000,000 and would like to use these resources to start a business. However, he is not sure of what to do.

Task:

Use your entrepreneurial skills to guide Chekomai on how

- (a) To select a viable type of business. (02 scores)
- (b) To budget for the selected business. (12 scores)
- (c) To register the business. (11 scores)

Item 2:

Uganda was ranked as the world's most entrepreneurial country by Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) in 2017, recording the highest youth entrepreneurs with 55.6% of the youth population involved in new or established businesses, but many of those businesses do not live to celebrate their first birth day. It is most attributed to lack of guidance and direction during the initial stages. When one gets money, he or she usually starts a business without following any laid-down plan. Whenever you are starting a business or expanding the existing one, you need to have a business plan.

Task

- (a) What do you understand by a business plan? (02scores)
- (b) List the components of a business plan (08 scores)
- (c) Using a business of your choice, draft a sample of the general description of business (15 scores)

Item 3

Kayibanda is a businessman in Arua city. He runs a cosmetic shop on a large scale but has not registered for tax payment. The road to his home area is not tarmac and the area has no electricity and this discouraged him from paying taxes as he says that he does not see the value benefits of paying it. He has even discouraged those paying taxes not to pay until there is change of government.

People are saying that Uganda Revenue Authority is of no use to them. You have now been invited to educate the people in the area on their obligation to paying taxes.

Task

- (a) Make a speech to present in town council gathering to the people about the role of Uganda Revenue Authority. (13 scores)
- (b) Present to the gathering the benefits of indirect taxes. (12 scores)
