ITEM 1

The Lord is my shepherd, I have everything I need. He rests me in the fields of green pastures and leads me to quiet pools of fresh water. He gives me new strength and guides me in straight paths. Even if I go through the deepest darkness, I have no fear because He protects me with His rod and staff. He prepares and invites me to a Banquet where I am given enough to drink before my enemies. Your goodness and love will be with me lifelong in your house.

Task

- (a) How is this text a true guide to Christian life?
- (b) Explain the traditional African ideas that help believers to remain faithful to God.

Chick Poultry Company is a newly established and progressive enterprise in town. They sell a variety of quality farm products at relatively low prices; which has attracted many customers. However, workers are paid little money, they are paid late and they are unhappy. Some of them who have left are circulating a rumour that the company uses bad chemicals to preserve some of the products which is a health hazard. Prominent customers intend to leave while the proprietor has arrested and detained some workers. Others have laid down tools demanding for the release of their colleagues.

Task

Using Christian and contemporary methods, how should such a situation be handled?

ITEM 4

At Serbio S.S, co-curricular activities are taken as very important since they promote the school. The proprietors recruit and offer bursaries to talented children. They spend most of the school time training and participating in inter-school competitions; and hence less academic work is done. At the end of the course, many fail and the school is unable to help them continue in any way; much as it has developed out their effort. Today, some have resorted to illegal means of surviving which is seen as exploitation and parents are demanding that the school compensates them or else, they involve Human Rights Activists.

Task
