

SECTION A

1. The candidate is expected to write a dialogue or conversation or interview. It must have the following features.

- A) Format = 06 marks
Title = 02 marks
Character (Nouns or proper nouns and not pronouns ie I, me ,he) = 01 mark
The colon = 01 mark.
Introductory remark = 01 mark
Conclusive remark = 01 mark.

Note.

- a) The title should be complete and meaningful e.g A DIALOGUE
OR CONVERSATION
OR INTERVIEW
OR TALK BETWEEN MANAGER
OR BOSS
OR PROPER NOUN (NAME) IN A JOB INTERVIEW.
b) If abnormal arrangement M1
c) If pronouns used for characters Foo
d) If candidates uses the word speech Foo.
e) The title should indicate the purpose of the interview (job).

- B) Content = 08 marks
Consider – welcome remarks col
- Greetings col
- Self-introduction col
- Personal achievement or education.col.
- Skills and abilities col
- Interests and hobbies col
- Expectations col

- C) Language = 06 marks
- Register
- Spellings
- Punctuation
- Sentence structure.
- Tense or grammar.

Award of marks

- 05-06 - very good
04 - Good
03 - Average or fair.
01-02 - Weak.

SECTION B

2. It should be a narrative or story.
  - Candidate is expected to write a narrative about an experience that had kept them away from school against their wish if not B.1.
  - It should portray a challenging experience if not M1
  - Candidate must be involved if not M1.
  - Give school a wide interpretation.
3. It should be a description
  - The description should portray the deeds of a selfless charity giver to the community and illustrate their great deeds.
  - If change is negative accept.
  - Give someone a wide interpretation.
  - Candidate may be involved.
  - If more than one person treat as normal.
  - Give ordinary people a wide interpretation.
4. It should be a story.
  - The story should portray a person who is a good talker (persuasive) and in so doing they are bound to lie as well as convincing anyone.
  - If talker without lies M1.
  - If more than one lie accept.
  - If no great talker not great liar B1.
  - Candidates may be involved.
5. It should be a story
  - The essay should be about bringing up ones children in future based on one's personal up-bringing and experiences.
  - It should portray appreciation or regret.
  - If only up-bring and experience M1.
  - If only how they intend to bring up their children M1.
  - Candidate must be involved if not M1 give family a wider interpretation.
6. An opinion essay.
  - If story accepts.
  - Candidates are expected to take a stand point if both sides are given accept.
  - Give luck and success a wide interpretation.
  - If no success B.1.
7. It should be a story or essay.
  - The essay should portray the importance of a home.
  - Give home wider interpretation.
  - If statement not at the end M1.
  - Candidates may not be involved.
  - If no statement not implied B.1

END