ITEM 1

Jack is a committed Christian who always takes readings in church and helps in ushering during the time the priest conducts holy communication. Jack also runs a business of selling food stuffs however his business is not doing well like that of his neighbour. He has few customers, one of his friends is advising him to go to a witch doctor for a charm for success in his business. Which idea Jack is not comfortable with.

Tasks.

- a) Using Christian approaches, Explain the advice you would use to help Jack remain faithful to God despite the challenges he is facing. (13 scores)
- b) Relate the African traditional ways of strengthening people's faith with the teachings in the Bible. (12 scores)

ITEM 2

A certain farmer had failed to agree on which particular family to have, the wife decided to report the matter to the police unit in charge of local religious leaders and elders of the family. The issue came from the wife being raised from the family where children lived with their relatives. The woman had wanted her husband to accept to bring her relatives home which the man disagreed. This resulted into a constant fight not only at their home but also in the community they lived.

Tasks

- a) Explain the Christian values that can be advocated to restore family relationships in the scenario. (13 scores)
- b) Using contemporary approach. What advice can you give to the family to remain stable despite the challenges? (12 scores)

SECTION B

This section has two Parts I and 2

Part 1.

ITEM 3

Respond to one item from this part.

Mary and Betty are long term friends. They own a restaurant together which they have operated for 5 years. As friends, they therefore decided to save all their profit with the aim of investing money in another business. They have been planning to begin a poultry farm, however Mary disappeared with the money they had saved worth 10 million Ugandan shillings.

Task

Basing on the scenario, use the Christian and traditional values to solve the problems faced by workers in Uganda today.

ITEM 4

Go to the ant, you sluggard. Consider its ways and be wise it has no commander. No over seer or ruler yet it stores its provisions in summer and gathers its food at harvest. How long will you lie there you sluggard? When will you get up from your sleep? A little sleep. A little slumber, a little folding of hands to rest and poverty will come on you like a thief has scarcity like an armed man (proverbs 6:6ff)

Tasks

- a) Use the above biblical text to promote hard work so as to dominate the world. (13 scores)
- b) How can the above biblical scenario be related to traditional African practices which promoted development?

ITEM 5

St. Martin Secondary school is located in Karicho, it had stayed for long in the field of education since its establishment in 1970. For all this long. It has been known for its disciplined staff and students in addition to its academic excellence. However, following the covid19 pandemic, some members of staff emerged out very rich while the rest of staff got so poor. The rich class distanced from the poor. While the poor ones hated the rich. This has caused the crisis to the extent that the students too are now showing sides and are getting divided up alongside their teachers. As per now, no one knows the fate of the mighty school. The community too is worried

Task

Use your knowledge on Christian and contemporary approaches, how best can these teachers involved in the scenario resolve their misunderstandings so that the school maintains its glory for better academic performance. (25 scores)

ITEM 6

In Mutuba village there existed a wrangle between Mr. Vima and his neighbour Ms. Nabweso. The wrangle came as a result of land boundary which they share. Mr. Vima accused Ms. Nabweso for being aggressive that she uses the boundary forcefully. Ms. Nabweso also had the same complaint. They fought and almost wanted to kill each other. The chairperson called for a village meeting to reconcile and forgive each other. However, Mr. Vima and Ms. Nabweso are still accusing each other and have failed to reconcile.

Task

Basing on Christian and traditional African views. Explain ways in which people in the scenario can live in harmony.
