SECTION A

Answer all items in this section

Item 1

For over three decades, a number of people have moved to Uganda settling in different parts of the country including your community. Their coming has largely led to conflicts with the local people in the area they have settled. The local leaders of these areas have identified you to work with them to resolve this conflict and encourage the natives to accommodate them.

TASK

How would you convince the natives to accommodate the above settlers?

Item 2

Two families in your community have been fighting for two years. Every day they argue, fight and abuse one another. They are not greeting each other anymore. Their fights will never be resolved and there is something which needs to be done.

TASK

How best can you help the local leaders on the steps they can follow to address the above issue.

SECTION B

Answer one item in this section.

Item 3

Currently, we see many Christian groups such as Catholics, Anglicans and Protestants in east Africa but originally these groups were not in east Africa. They come from England, France among others but as they come, they performed certain activities that created an impact on east Africa which we still see even today.

TASK:

Our past has it that these groups on their coming made a lot of activities which impact Ugandans. Do you think our past is right? Support your response?

Item 4

In 1986, the National Resistance Movement captured power to rehabilitate the country after a civil war. President Museveni Kaguta established a ministry of Rehabilitation and the Ministry of local government to support, recover and enhance political consolidation of the NRM in power. Over 35 years in power, the local government governs councils and committees which are still weak and centers of corruption.

TASK.

Advise the government on best the local government can be used to improve the standards of living among the members of your community
