Item 1

Bright future is a secondary school found in Gulu district .The s.1 IRE teacher went for a leave in the middle of the term but had not taught them a lot.

The teacher standing in for him has promised learners a test next week about beliefs particularly the second and fourth articles of faith .However, in the school, there is neither a library nor a computer lab to enable learners research.

They are worried what they will present in the test. Meanwhile, those doing CRE are happy because their teacher gives it all, they are now laughing at the IRE students which is making them get annoyed.

Task

Basing on the scenario: Explain

- a) Islamic teachings that can address the situation.
- b) How the IRE learners should relate with those of CRE.

Item 2

Bilal is a new manager in a company where employees work from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm from Monday to Saturday. When he took over as manager, he stopped the company s provision of lunch to employees and also removed the television that they used to watch during their lunch break .In addition, Bilal pays the employees late, gives them a lot of work and deducts money from their monthly salary due to some mistakes such as reporting late for work. As a result, the workers have low morale and some have left the company.

Task

Using Islamic and contemporary views, how can Bilal improve the company's situation in the scenario?

SECTION B

Item 5

One of the great Muslim scholars imam Sadjad (A.S) says in one of his prayers “If you have ordained that we enjoy peace after we worked, make it safe and sound so that we may not commit a sin ” . Also goes ahead and says “And let not your youth, leisure and strength take you away from the mercy of God”.

Task

- a) Basing on the above quotations, how can you advise a Muslim to spend their leisure time without going away from Gods mercy?
- b) How was leisure spent in the African traditional societies?

Item 6

In Luzira sub county, there are two neighbors who are having troubles with land boundaries. The richer (wealthier) neighbor went to the police and bribed the officers and also influenced the judge to rule the case in his favor. As a result, the poor neighbor lost a big part of his land due to corruption and the injustice that was committed. He has now turned to his fellow residents to get advice on how to get justice.

Task

Explain the Islamic teachings and contemporary ways on how the above issue can be resolved.
