END OF YEAR ASSESSMENT 2024

HISTORY PAPER 1

(Theory)

2 Hours: 15 minutes

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES:

This paper consists of two sections A and B. It has four examinations items

Section A is compulsory.

Answer one item from section B.

Answer three items in all.

Any additional item(s) answered will not be scored

SECTION A

Answer both items in this section.

Item; 1

In Nakasongola, a group of newcomers took control and became leaders. They treated the local people unfairly, causing suffering. The locals want to regain control and independence.

Write an essay explaining how the local people in Nakasongola can gain control of their community.

Item 2

The Royal tombs of Buganda at Kasubi were set on fire by unknown strangers and very many items were completely destroyed. The police and other security agencies made efforts to find out the actual cause of this fire but their efforts remained futile. Many Ugandans came up with arguments over this event that the tombs should be removed so that an industry is put up to provide employment to the people. However, UNESCO has insisted that the tombs should be renovated and maintained.

Task:

Support UNESCO's idea.

SECTION B

(Attempt only one item)

Item.3

Recently, there was a talk show on NBS TV and several political analysts were told to comment about the structure of governance in Uganda and how best it can be improved. One of them started by explaining what governance is and the program modulator appreciated him. He was further asked to describe the structure of Uganda's government but he instead failed. When he failed. The programme modulator resorted to allowing viewers make phone calls and respond accordingly.

Task:

Assuming your call went through, how would you help these political analysts?

Item 4

In Uganda's recent local council elections, voter turnout was alarmingly low. Many citizens felt local government systems were ineffective and didn't value them. To address this, the Ministry of Local Government launched an awareness campaign.

Task

As a member of this team, Write an essay you will use to sensitize people in different parts of the country about the above systems.
