Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Literature & English Education Initiative Mock Exams for the NLSC and UACE

On behalf of the Literature and English Education Initiative UG 2019, I humbly write to you in respect of the above subject. The Literature and English Education Initiative UG 2019 is a legally registered association that brings together teachers of Literature, English language and General Paper from across the country. Our major objective is to co-ordinate in matters pertaining to the teaching and learning of these subjects. We have organized mock assessment to enable learners get acquainted with the new UCE competence based curriculum end of cycle assessment for English language and Literature, as well as UACE.

We have got a competent team well versed with the new curriculum which will set and score these exams. The exams will be administered on 27th and 28th June, 2024 and will be scored immediately by our competent team. The results will be released within the first two weeks of July. Feedback on the assessment will then be given through comprehensive reports on the performance of the learners.

We therefore invite your school to take part in this inaugural mock assessment which will prepare your learners for the coming end of cycle assessment.

The following are the rates per subject, per learner:

UCE (NLSC)

English language	shs 6,000/=
Literature in English	shs 6,000/=

UACE (Old curriculum)

Literature in English	shs 12,000/=
General Paper	shs 6,000/=

NB:

- The rates will cater for delivery of exams to schools, administering exams, scoring/marking, and delivery of scripts and scoring/marking guides.

Here is a tentative programme/time table for the assessment process:

Registration of learners	Deadline: 20th June 2024
